

NOBEL SUSTAINABILITY
TRUST
A WORLD IN BALANCE

To Her Excellency Claudia Sheinbaum Pardo
President-Elect The United Mexican States

Dear President-Elect Sheinbaum,

I am pleased to inform you that the Nobel Sustainability Trust has selected you to receive the prestigious Outstanding Contribution in Sustainability Medal for 2024. This accolade is a testament to your exceptional efforts and unwavering commitment to advancing sustainability initiatives in Mexico.

Your groundbreaking policies and innovative approaches have significantly contributed to environmental conservation, the adoption of renewable energy, and sustainable urban development. The positive impact of your work is evident and serves as an inspiration worldwide.

We cordially invite you to our award ceremony on November 20th and 21st 2024, at UC Berkeley, California, where we aim to honour your remarkable contributions alongside UN leaders, members of the Nobel family, royal families, and prominent charitable foundations. The other awardees include a former UN leader Ban Ki-moon and three esteemed academicians who have made significant contributions to sustainability. You will receive the medal and certificate from the chairman of Nobel Sustainability Trust and surprise speeches by other leaders.

For more details about the arrangements, please contact NST CEO Tracy W. at +46 70 813 45 88 or email tw@nobelsustainability.org.

Congratulations on this well-deserved recognition!

Warm regards,

Michael Nobel
